

Beethovenfest 2010: Post Tower Lounge once more the magnet for music-lovers worldwide

Bonn, 31 August 2010. In the context of the Beethovenfest the Post Tower Lounge will once more be opening its doors on 12 September and presenting, in the series "Beethoven in der Post Tower Lounge" an inspiring programme ranging from chamber music to jazz, from video art to lieder recitals. The concerts are enthusiastically received every year, as is confirmed by the echo this year. The first concerts were already sold out within a few hours.

The Lounge is open from 12 September to 9 October 2010 Tuesdays to Saturdays from 6.30 p.m. to midnight. Between 8.00 and 9.30 p.m. visitors can see and hear live music and art performances by international guests and young artists. On Sundays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. there are jazz matinees. Admission starts 90 minutes before the beginning of the concert. Visitors are asked to take their seats no later than 15 minutes before the start of the concert, otherwise their reservations will lapse.

A programme overview is appended to this press release.

Owing to the heavy demand, booking this year will be left to the professionals at BonnTicket (www.bonnticket.de or Hotline 0228/502010). Since, as in previous years, demand far exceeds supply, it is unfortunately inevitable this year too that some people will not obtain tickets for the concerts of their choice. Even so, Deutsche Post DHL is continuing its policy of not charging for the concerts.

As the leading international logistics provider with its headquarters in Bonn, Deutsche Post DHL is signalling its close connexions with the city and the region through its support for the Beethovenfest, which goes beyond merely financial sponsorship.
